

Bio

Richard Knubben, Senior Adviser on Automotive Affairs, has been working with Leaseurope, the trade federation representing the leasing and automotive rental sector at European level, since 2008. Previously he worked in corporate and public affairs for the advertising industry and Panasonic.

Richard has obtained an MA in European Public Administration from the Catholic University of Leuven, as well as an MA in Economics obtained at Maastricht University and Brandeis International Business School in Boston.